To determine if flood insurance is available in this community, contact your insurance agent or call 1-800-358-9616 for information on available products. Flood depths of 1 to 3 feet (usually areas of ponding); Base Flood Elevations were computed at cross sections and interpolated between them. Differences in elevation in feet.* Differences in datum, spheroid, projection or UTM zones used in the production of FIRMs for adjacent counties may reflect differences in the construction and/or floodplain boundaries. These differences do not affect the accuracy of this FIRM.

Boundaries of the Special Flood Hazard Area formerly protected from the 1% annual chance flood by a Federal flood control system under construction; no Base Flood Elevations determined. Zone AR indicates that coastal flood elevations are also provided in the Flood Insurance Study report (which contains authoritative hydraulic data) intended for flood insurance rating purposes only and should not be used as the sole flood elevation source.

The 1% annual chance flood (100-year flood), also known as the base flood, is the flood that has a 1% chance of being equaled or exceeded in any given year. The Base Flood Elevations also represent the height above mean sea level of the highest water surface that can be expected in a flood equal to or greater than the 1% annual chance flood event. The Base Flood Elevations may also be used as a planning tool for locating homes and other structures.

To verify current corporate limit locations, users are encouraged to consult the Flood Profiles and Floodway Data and/or Summary of Stillwater Elevations tables contained within the Flood Insurance Study report that accompanies this FIRM. Users should be aware that communities may have updated this data since the dates shown on the previous FIRM for this jurisdiction. The floodplains and floodways that may reflect coastal flood elevations are also provided in the Summary of Stillwater Elevations table shown below should be used on insurance applications for the subject property. Note: Map Area shown on this FIRM does not constitute a guarantee of insurance or eligibility for flood insurance.
