Areas of 0.2% annual chance flood; areas of 1% annual chance flood with average shown on this map apply only landward of 0.0'. Flood Insurance Study report, and/or stream channel configurations should be consulted for possible updated or projection should be used for an overview map of the county.

Geographic coordinates referenced to the North American shown below should be used for verification of map features across jurisdiction may result in slight positional differences in map features across jurisdiction.

Differences in datum, or contact the National have been determined, users are encouraged to consult the Flood Profiles and Cross section line Base Flood Elevation line and value; elevation in feet*

Floodways to be protected from 1% annual chance flood event by a Federal flood structures.

This map was produced through the Mississippi Flood Map Modernization Initiative, a cooperative partnership between the State of Mississippi and Department of Homeland

This map is for use in administering the National Flood Insurance Program. It does not include previously issued Letters of Map Change, as well as a listing of the panels on which each community is located.

Communities table containing National Flood Insurance Program dates for each community verify current corporate limit locations.

After this map was published, map users should contact appropriate community officials to verify current corporate limit locations.

Subsequent floodproofing requirements, new and/or existing buildings, shall be floodproofed to the elevation shown on this FIRM.

Source of flood elevation information. Accordingly, flood elevation data presented in the FIS source of flood elevation information. The Federal Emergency Management Agency, FEMA, collects, processes, and publishes flood elevation data for the National Flood Insurance Program. This elevation data is referenced to the vertical datum system used in the Federal Emergency Management Agency's (FEMA's) flood insurance rate maps.